

2013 La Sirena Malbec Winemaker Notes/Fact Sheet

Announcing our first release of varietal Malbec from La Sirena! We are very excited to introduce this new wine. I have made Malbec for various clients from time to time over the last ten years but it has always been as blending wine for Cabernet based blends. In 2013 I had the opportunity to buy some beautiful Malbec grapes from a nearby vineyard and the result was so delicious I just had to bottle it on its own. The grapes came from a vineyard from our neighbors just over the Napa Valley border in Knights Valley producing an excellent expression of Malbec. Super yummy stuff!

Tasting Notes: 2013 Malbec (tasted 5/18/16 by HPB)

This 2013 Malbec from La Sirena is very dark blackberry jam in color. The aromas are driven by ripe deep black fruit characteristics, berries, plums, black cherry, pomegranate and a hint of root beer and spice. There are pretty, sweet, toasty, French oak notes in the nose as well. This wine is velvety yet lively across the palate with explosive flavors, silky and mouth coating with seamless barely there tannins. The fruit has a lifted note from this variety and a long lingering finish. The blend is 100% Malbec from a single vineyard site in Knights Valley. This is a real treat, something different and a really tasty fun wine. Enjoy!

Why "La Sirena"? The name means "the Mermaid" in Spanish and Italian. I chose it because I'm a long time scuba diver and was looking for something fun and magical (like wine) to name the winery. The first vintage of La Sirena was 1994 with the first Cabernet Sauvignon made in 1996. The wines we make are Cabernet Sauvignon, Le Barretage (Rhône style blend), Moscato Azul (dry Muscat Canelli), Grenache, Malbec, and our two fun and tasty proprietary winemaker red blends; Art Bus, and Pirate TreasuRed. Production is always small, focusing on fine wines of purity and excellence-the best that can be made. Wishing you all the best!
